

Checklist for a blog response

Your blog response should adhere by the following criteria:

Knowledge/Understanding:

- I completed the reading and compiled all the necessary research of the text to support my ideas (use quotations and plot examples where appropriate)
- I contributed relevant information that responds to the question prompts

Thinking and Inquiry

- My entries/responses demonstrate openness to new ideas and opinions
- My entries/responses clearly reveal my learning in this activity and demonstrate a change in a way of thinking
- My entries/responses provide a conclusion that offer classmates something to think about

Communication

- All of my ideas are communicated with clarity (controlling idea is evident)
- My writing is organized logically using an appropriate level of language and formality
- The material I researched is properly integrated into the writing

Application

- Correct grammar, usage, punctuation and spelling is utilized in every entry/response
- Language conventions are used accurately and effectively for every entry/response